

EASY WAYS TO MAKE READING THE BIBLE WITH YOUR KIDS SPECIAL

- ★ Wake your child up 10 minutes earlier than normal and snuggle with a cup of hot chocolate while you help them read their Bible and fill out their journal.
- ★ Put your child to bed, turn out the lights, grab a flashlight, and read your Bibles under the covers.
- ★ Set aside some special pens, markers, or stickers that you use only during their special time with Jesus.
- ★ Buy a special bag of treats that can only be eaten during Bible study time, ie: cookies, dum dum suckers, gum, etc.
- ★ After your child reads the Scripture passage, have him stand up and pretend he is giving a sermon about what he just read.
- ★ If your child has a favorite stuffed animal or toy, have that lovey "read" the Bible with you
- ★ Let your child build a fort and use it as a special "prayer closet" to read their Bible in.
- ★ Read the Bible out loud together. Every time you read a specific word, do a jumping jack, or a burpee, or a somersault
- ★ Let your child choose a verse to memorize and make-up a song or actions to go with it.
- ★ Tell your child that they need to read the Bible to you while: hopping on one foot, using an opera voice, whispering, etc.
- ★ After you finish doing your Bible study, tickle your child and tell them how much God loves them, and you love them, too!
